

CHICKS SHOULD CARRY THE GUARDS OF HONOR

Chicks Tackle the Barons

Sgt. York Here Thursday

BY COYLE SHEA.

Carleton Moleworth and the Birmingham Barons, fighting a neck-and-neck battle with the Chicks, furnish the opposition at Russwood Tuesday in the first of a three-game series. The affair is scheduled for 4 o'clock.

Moleworth is out of the running for the first time in years, but is plugging along with a determined spirit.

TUESDAY, LADIES DAY WITH BARONS ON JOB

Tuesday is Ladies' day at Russwood park and as usual members of the Barons will be admitted to the park free of charge.

The customary guessing contest will be staged and the fair fall coming closest to the exact attendance at hand will be presented with a prize for the remaining games at the park.

RIDDLE FOSTER.

Eddie Foster was given his second severe drubbing in his last game when he went against the Barons Monday in the final game of the series. He started; Pentres finished and the Chicks were tossed out 10-0. So in a nutshell is the story of the Bar getting away.

Foster's last time out was Friday when he relieved Pentres against Atlanta. As you probably recall it was the Cracker riddled Pentres and Foster for 19 runs and 22 base hits Monday. Foster and Pentres reversed proceedings and the score was held down considerably. The visitors amassed a slim total of 10 hits.

Things didn't stick up well from the first when the Barons opened at Atlanta. As you probably recall it was the Cracker riddled Pentres and Foster for 19 runs and 22 base hits Monday. Foster and Pentres reversed proceedings and the score was held down considerably. The visitors amassed a slim total of 10 hits.

BILLY HAACK BELIEVES FINE PITCHING AND HEAVY HITTING WILL WIN THE CITY TITLE FOR THE GOODBARS IN MEMPHIS ASSOCIATED AMATEURS' SERIES JUST STARTING

GEORGE BLACKBURNE RESCUED BY COPS

George Blackburne, paired with Bull Dog Williams, as an umpire in Monday's game between the Chicks and Barons, came within an ace of being mobbed by an outraged assemblage of fans.

Blackburne found the going tough from the start and was in deep water most of the way. He became mixed in several heated debates with fans and was slipped an invitation to repair back to the stands when he was through with the day's work.

He accepted, but so did the fans. Cops came to the rescue and George took a taxi for town.

Bill Brennan, chief of staff in the John D. Martin circuit, was in the stands, inspecting the work of the two men. He was in earnest conversation with the league pressy the entire afternoon.

BOSTON BRINGS BACK WILHOIT TO MAJORS

BOSTON, Aug. 19.—The Boston American league baseball club has closed a deal with the Wichita, Kan. club of the Western league who recently jumped into fame by eluding safely in 47 consecutive games, thereby establishing a world record for consistent work, got his first baseball training on the campus of the De Paul Cathedral school at Chicago.

His first professional deal, which followed several years with fast semi-pro teams in various leagues, was with Vernon, in the Pacific Coast league, in 1910. At the end of this, he was traded to the Athletics, who had the league in fielding and batting. The next spring he was purchased by the Boston Nationals, and later traded to New York.

For two years he served as utility gardener for McGraw's men, and had a batting average of .274 to show for his stay in Gotham. The beginning of the 1910 season found him in Seattle, but he was traded to the Athletics, who had the league in fielding and batting. The next spring he was purchased by the Boston Nationals, and later traded to New York.

EVANS FAVORITE BETTING FOR NATIONAL TITLE

Present Champion Played Heavily in Pools—Francis Ouimet Has Fine Score Despite His Illness.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 19.—Charles E. (Chick) Evans, of Edgewater, present champion, was the favorite to win the national amateur golf championship at the Oakland Country club today when the first round of the annual play started. Evans brought $2,500 in $200 bets at the club. Robert Gardner, of Chicago, sold for $2,300. Francis Ouimet, of Woodland, $2,000 and Jerome Travers, of New York, $1,900.

The East had the largest representation in the match play while the West depended on the champion and Gardner. The South's hopes rest on "Bobby" Jones, of Atlanta, and New Whitney, of New Orleans. Public lines players hope that either James Manion or Richard Bookstump, of St. Louis, would win.

Francis Ouimet, of Woodland, risked his health yesterday to struggle through the 36-hole qualifying round in order that he would not lose the opportunity he has wanted for more than four years. Another chance to win the amateur championship.

Ouimet was attended by two physicians after he completed his play, and was ordered to bed. Physicians said that he was suffering from poisoned tonsils and that his back was exceedingly lame, indicating that he had caught cold yesterday.

There was a triple tie for the best medal at 18 between James S. Manion, the public links golfer from St. Louis; Davidson Herron, of Oakland, and Paul Tewkesbury, of Armonk, N.Y. Traver Thomas, of Nevada, here last night in a 10-round bout. Fanning had Thomas in a play off for two places in the 15th place, with the 32 who will continue today in the match play round.

AIRPLANE DELAYS CHICK-BEAR GAME

An airplane, swooping suddenly and unexpectedly over Russwood park Monday, caused a slight delay in the game in progress between the Chicks and the Bears.

The aviator dropped no bomb on the field that day. Griffin, Harry Colemanberger and other fall members of the tribe fought to the ground to protect their knobby. Others they might have been raked.

A wild fan broke up the tension with the following appropriate remark directed at the Chicks: "You was having a tough day back of the park? I don't wish that pilot any hard luck but I hope he pulls a tail split and lands on your neck."

FANNING COPS AGAIN.
SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 19.—Archie Fanning, of Kansas City, outboxed Traver Thomas, of Nevada, here last night in a 10-round bout. Fanning had Thomas in a play off for two places in the 15th place, with the 32 who will continue today in the match play round.

Vandy Gridiron Prospects Best in Many Seasons

BY JOHN M. NELSON.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Back to the good old days when she reigned supreme on the gridiron will come Vandy this season. Reuben have the prospects for a winning team, been so bright as at present, and Coach Phil McGugin is expecting a team that will rival even his strongest machines of the past.

With a line that cannot be surpassed anywhere in the South, six men who have made all-Southern nine who have played three years on the team, and 20 who have made their letters, McGugin has an outlook as bright as ever. The Vandy players have a reputation of Tech and Vandy supporters are predicting that this year will see the Commodores regain their former prestige.

Already over 40 men who have seen service under the tutelage of the dean of southern coaches have signed their intention of coming back. Four of these men have served as captains of the McGugin machines, and among them the captain elected for this year. All of these men know football and with the experience they have already gained Vanderbilt will start out with probably the brightest prospects since the last great machine went to pieces.

Veterans of two wars, those on the battlefields of France and those on the battlefields of college athletics, will heed the call of their Alma Mater and return to bring the same fame to the Vandy gridiron that they have brought to the carnage. Men who have served in all the branches of the service will be back and with the same spirit that they showed in defense of their country they will show in defense of their school. No slacker will find room at Vanderbilt in the future. They would not find it there during the war and they will not do so now.

Spirits of Former Years.
The spirit of former heroes of Vandy, who later proved heroes in France, will predominate on the team this year. Already the players have signed their work this year will be in the shape of a gridiron monument to "Rab" Curry, Charley Price, Herbert Jones, Mead Frierson, Charley Duncan and Dick Graham. Vandy men who gave their lives for their country will be the players, and with such a spirit, as well as the old fighting game of McGugin machines, will be the one big idea.

Must to the men who will return to the fold this year. First, the old veterans will be considered, and heading the list will be the names of the heroes. Lieut. Josh Cody, Josh will be out of service in a few days, and expects to report to the Vandy gridiron in the fall. He was in a 10-round bout, Fanning had Thomas in a play off for two places in the 15th place, with the 32 who will continue today in the match play round.
